

Important Notice

about Intensive Japanese Language Courses

All international students have mandatory intensive Japanese language courses over long holidays during the first two years of their program. These intensive courses are an important part of the KUAS curriculum and key to quickly acquiring Japanese literacy.

Students who are planning to travel overseas during their long vacations should take these courses into consideration, and ensure that their travel plans do not overlap.

The final dates and times of the Japanese intensive courses will be announced prior to all long holidays. For your reference, these courses were held on the following dates during previous school years.

Students are recommended to await confirmation of course dates and times before planning holiday travel, etc.
